Throughout the course of our lives, each of us, as an individual, has felt a certain incentive towards reaching a set goal. This "striving for achievement" was chosen as the theme of our yearbook.

Upon coming to THS as freshmen, we could be compared to the mythical Pegasus just beginning as a small foal. Over the past four years we have developed, much like this winged horse, into a beautiful being—restoring hope, lifting spirits, and renewing enthusiasm. Thus, we can correlate this striving for achievement and the maturing of Pegasus into a characterization that well suits all our lives.

We begin each new venture in the dark and slowly, with more steadiness of foot, and a little added growth on our wings, we make our way up our own mountain the same way Pegasus does. Soon we find that we, too, reach the top and are able to fly off to more distinct and inspiring goals. Let us not forget this transformation from confinement and darkness to freedom and light will occur many times in our lives as we each struggle for that certain something that will make our lives complete.

May each of our endeavors allow us to reappear wiser, stronger, and more aware of the world around us.

*We've strived many years to reach our goal
It's time has now arrived
This end now presents a new beginning;
Toward another peak we'll strive.*

*Throughout our years at THS
We've shared each day anew
As teams and clubs and audience
Our memories, ne'er few.*

*Our course has shown us many a trial
And many rewards, as well
Past are the years when all seemed strange
On those with smiles we'll dwell.*

*As freshmen, our journey had just begun
As sophomores, we saw our goal
As juniors, we knew we'd soon be there
As seniors, we stand alone.*

*So as we depart, we look behind
To all the joys and pains
Knowing that to strive is best
If it's achievement we're to gain.*

TULPEHOCKEN'S JR. MISS

Tina Care

Being a Jr. Miss has been one of the best experiences of my life. I have met many new people, which I feel will create lasting friendships. It's hard to believe the closeness of the girls throughout all the practices and up to the final day.

This experience started back in June when three other girls and I attended preliminaries at Schuylkill Valley. We were interviewed by a panel of judges who chose one girl who would represent her school in the county.

Next, all the contestants began to get acquainted by participating in various activities together. We had a picnic, a swimming party, went miniature golfing, and played a softball game against the Reading Phillies' wives. After all these activities, the practices began. These started on August 16, and occurred every Sunday until the pageant. The night before the pageant, the dress rehearsal lasted until the early hours of the morning.

During the day of the pageant, we had a ten minute interview with a panel of four judges and then went out to lunch. After this, we were able to practice our talents and relax for the rest of the day. That evening, before the show began, all the girls were given flowers.

The theme of this year's pageant was "New York." In the beginning we had to run through the audience dressed as sidewalk shoppers in New York City. Next came our youth fitness competition. We all did two routines together using top hats and canes. Individual talents followed. For my talent, I performed a modern jazz dance to "The Music and the Mirror" from A Chorus Line. Lastly came the evening gown competition and the winners were announced.

I loved the whole experience and I would surely do it again if I had the chance.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Miss Ketner, James Boyer, Susan Bohn, Jolie Shearer, Kevin Krause, Lori Boltz, Deneen Ebling, Brian Luckenbill, Brenda Shupp, Sherry Kramer, Bernice Kreitz, Wendy Ziegler, Melanie Gottfried, Denise Mazess, Lawrence Leitzel, Fred Behney, Julie Moyer, Tina Care.

Every March a ceremony is held in the auditorium for the induction of new members into the National Honor Society. This organization is composed of Juniors and Seniors who have been chosen by the faculty for their traits of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. These distinguished students all maintain an 86 average or above.

At the last ceremony, speeches were given by Renee Krause, Debbie Derr, Janet Bashore, and Pamela Keeney on the qualities of a National Honor Society listed above. Mr. Koenig was chosen as the guest speaker because of his upcoming retirement. He spoke on the changes that have occurred in our district since he attended school.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served in the library for the members and their parents.

HOSTESSES

Our hostesses always greet you with a smile.

Making sure everything is correct in the program.

One of the very first welcomes a person receives as he or she walks through the doors of THS will come from our hostesses. These girls are all Seniors chosen for their scholastic achievements. The girls are always present at assemblies, band and choral concerts, banquets, plays, open house, baccalaureate services, and commencement. It's nice to know that whatever program you attend at the high school, you will always be greeted with a warm smile.

FUND

Everyone lends a helping hand at the "Apple Festival."

These are just a few items manufactured at Sterling Drugs.

Keep on stuffing the lettuce in, Rick.

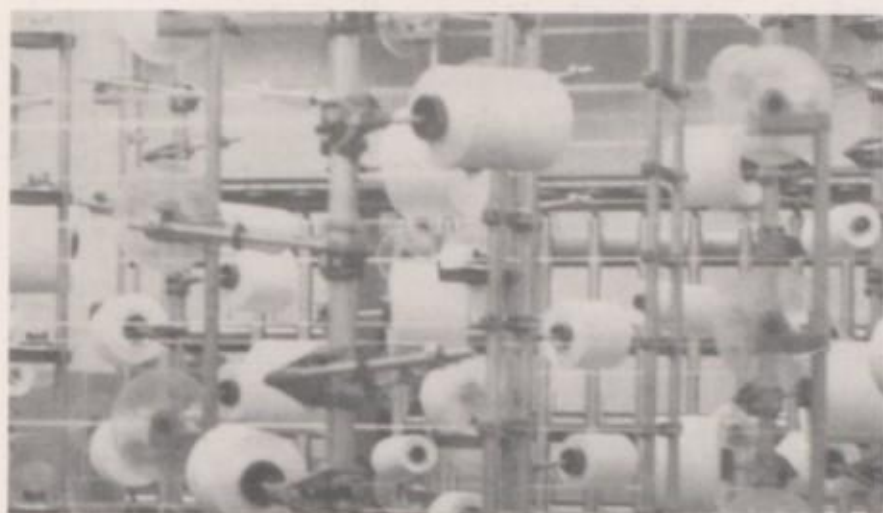

It takes a steady hand to do a job like this.

RAISERS

Everyone wants to learn how to make lace.

Spinning thread to make lace.

Boy, does this look good.

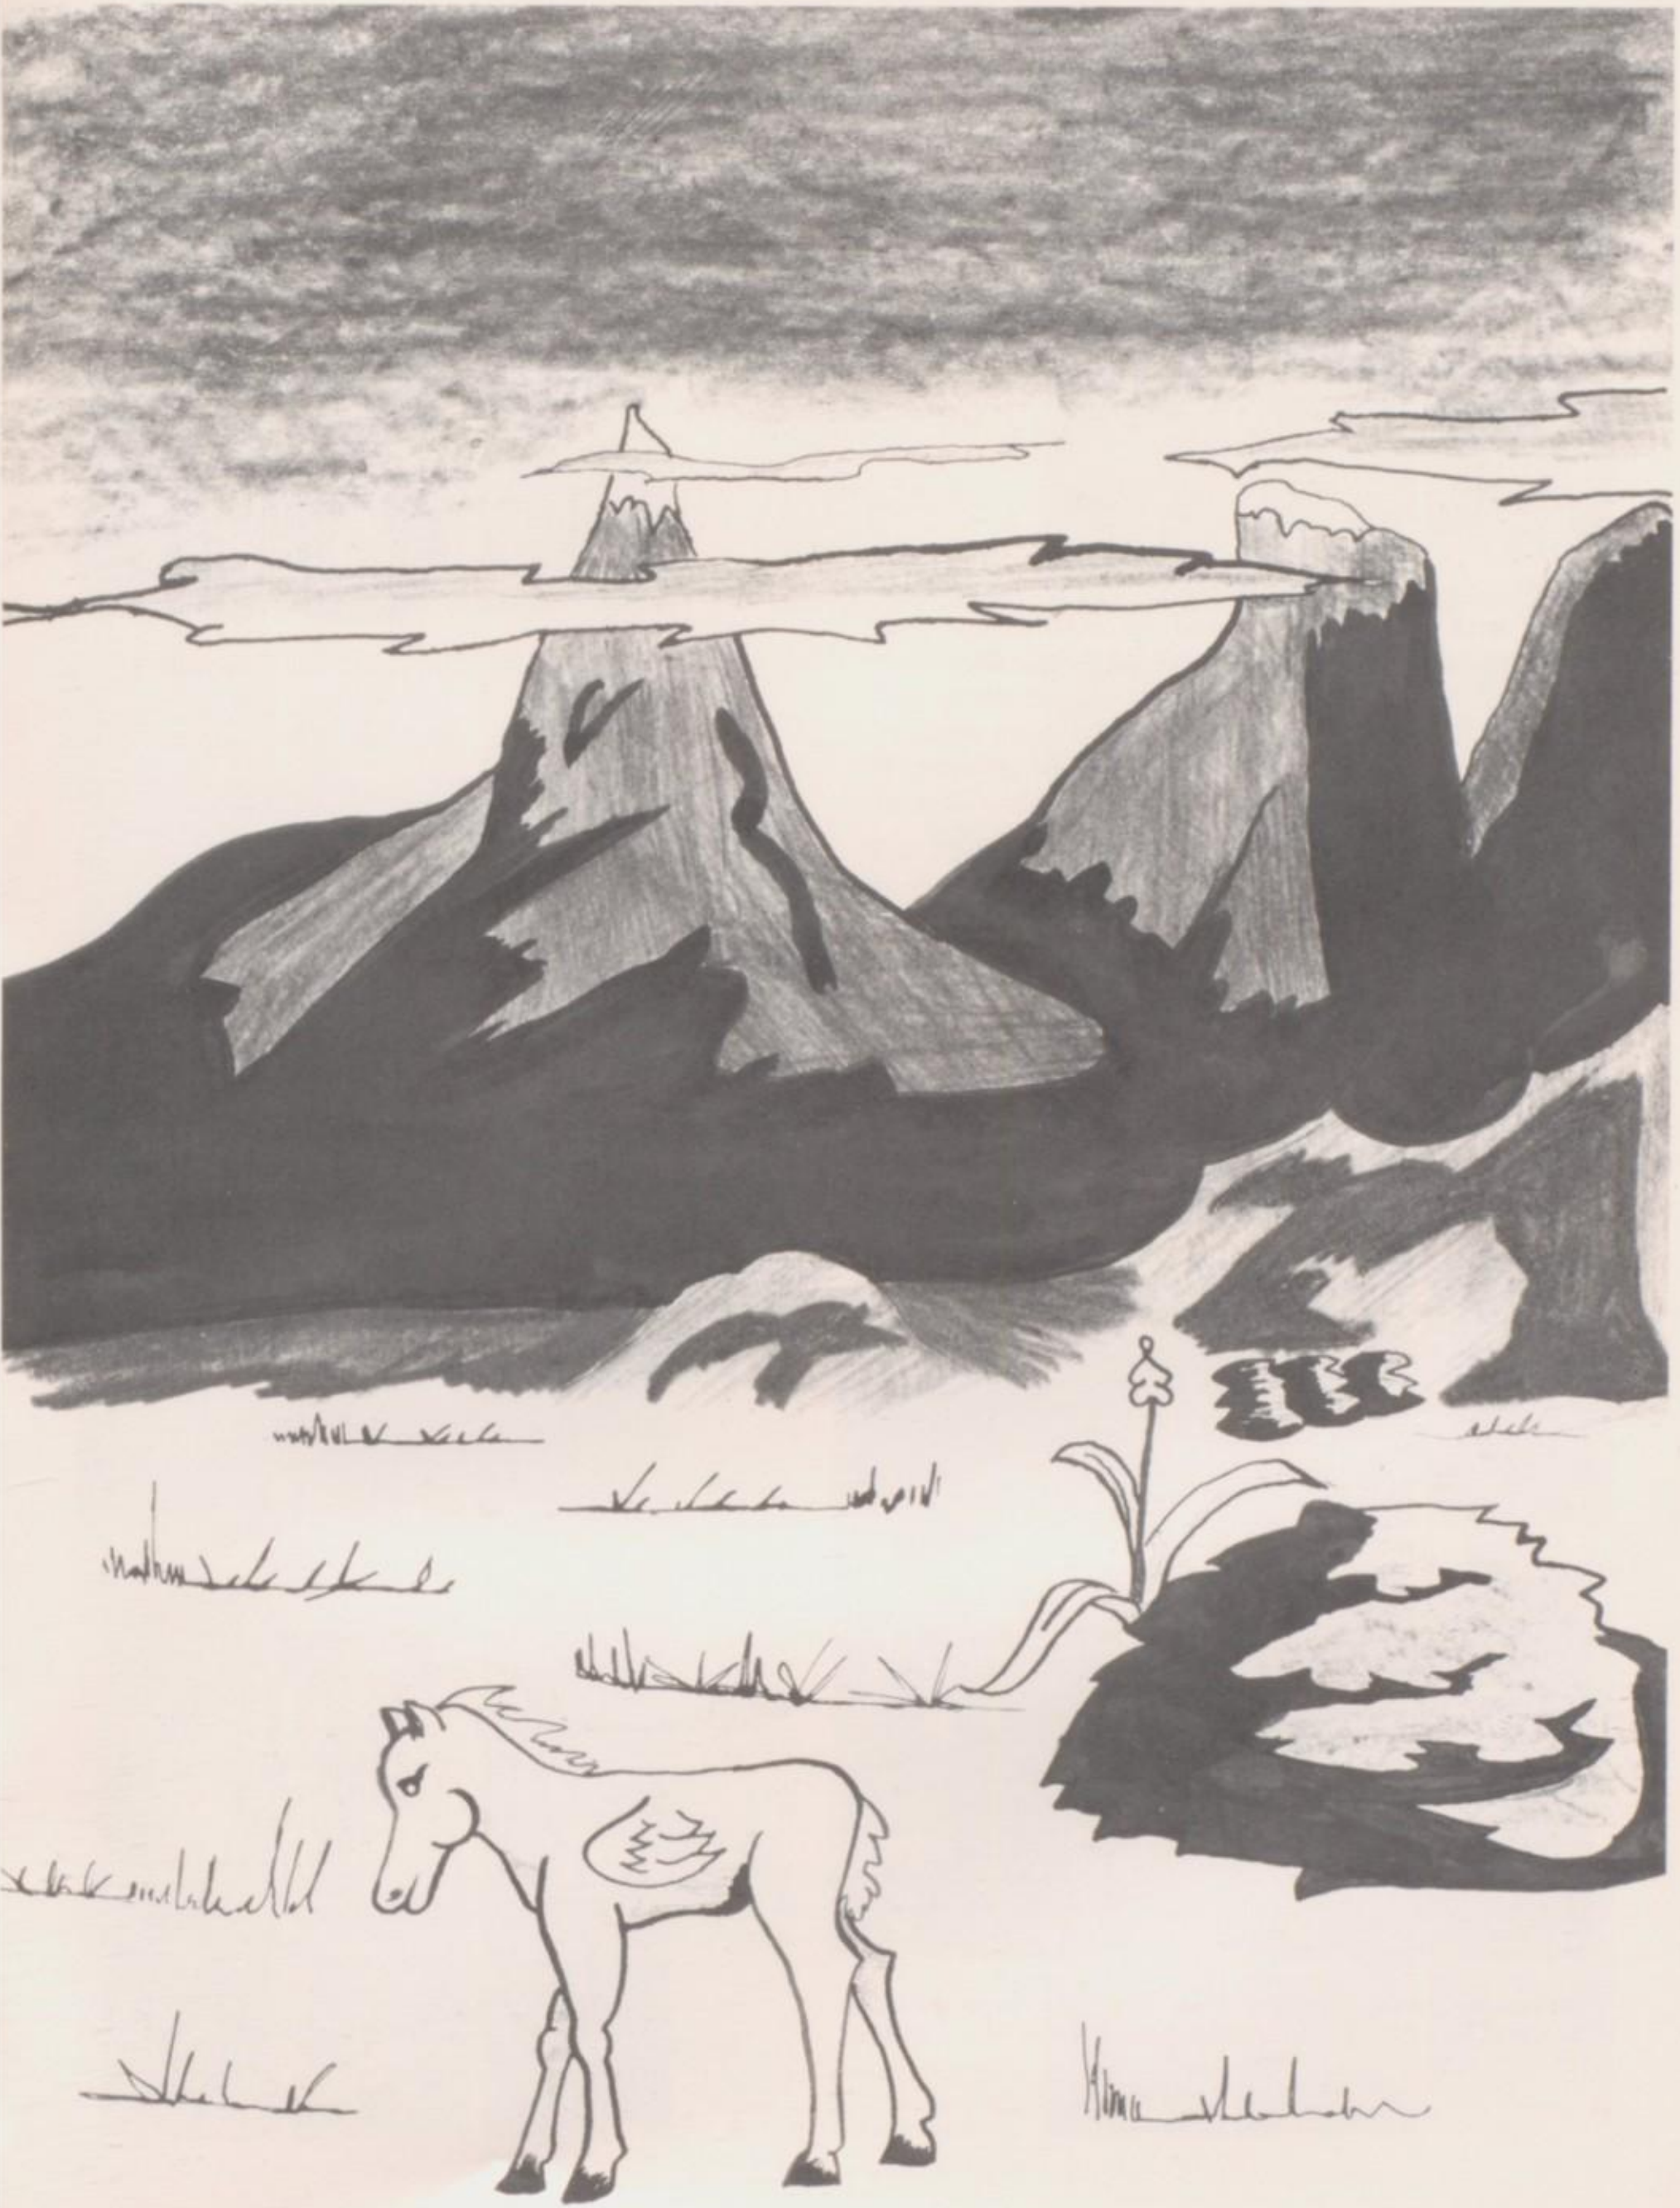

Shake them fries, Kevin.

UNION DANCE CLASS MEN

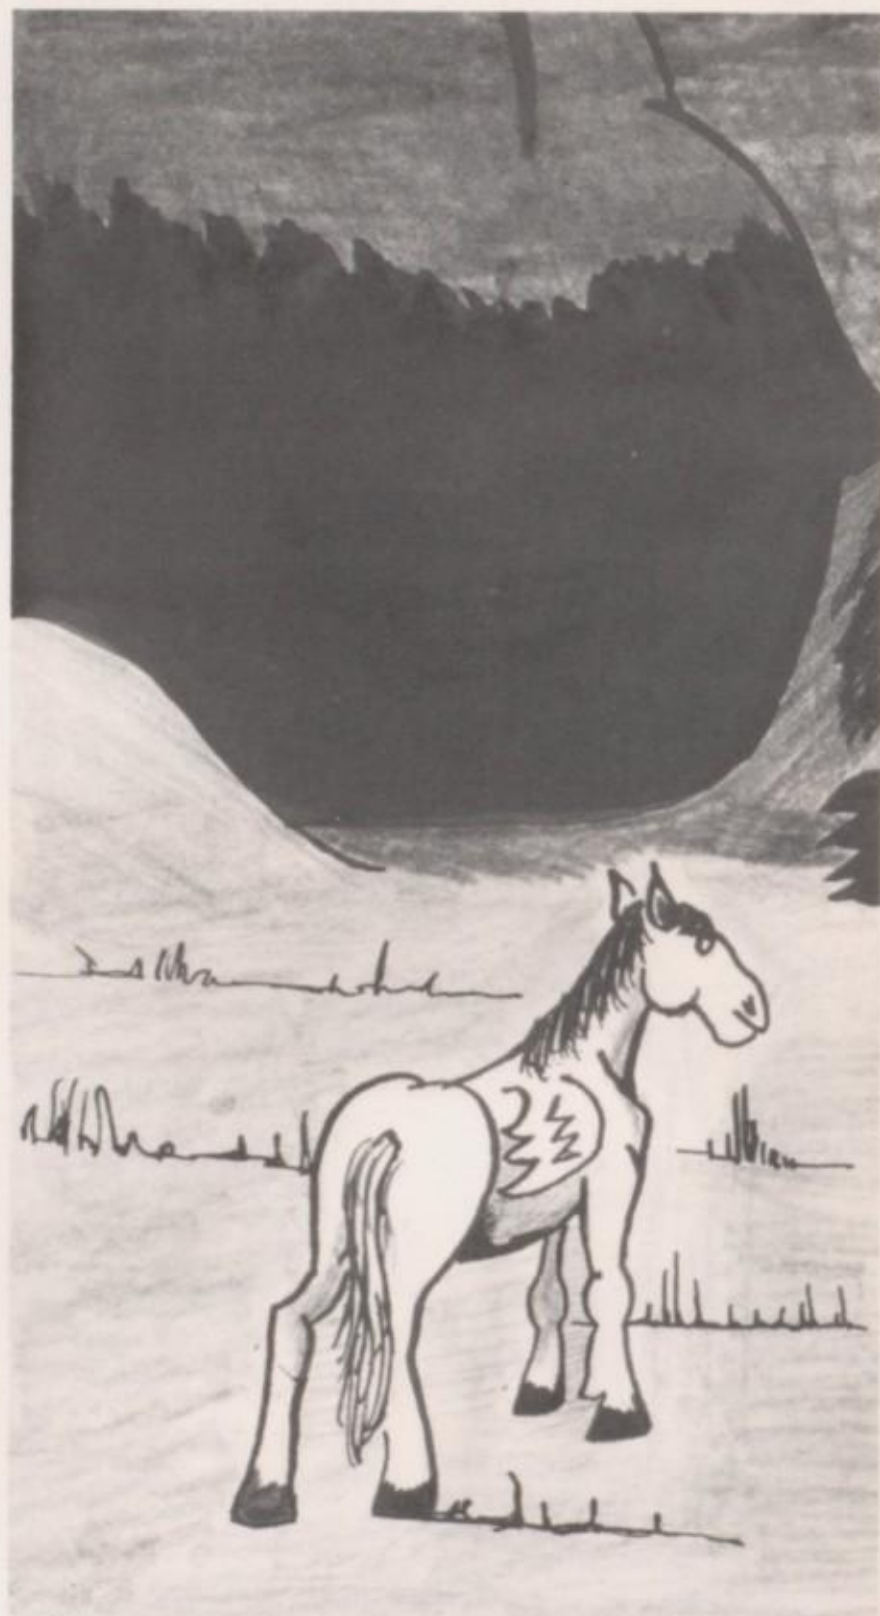

Juniors

83

The Juniors have just one more year to go and it's filled with new activities and responsibilities. The prom, the sandwich sale, the play, and their dance are a few of the fund raising activities. These things will help the cost of the class trip next year seem smaller. This year the Juniors ordered their class jackets. It will be one of the many reminders for the Class of '83's years at THS. GOOD LUCK, JUNIORS!

Sue Bohn, copy editor; and Brian Luckenbill, layout editor.

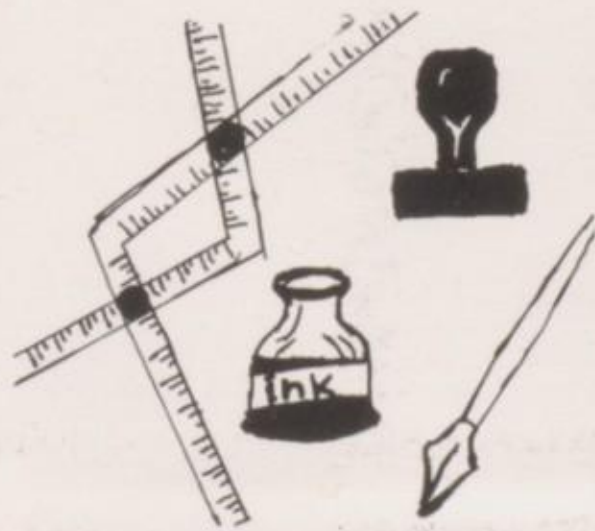

Photographers Denise Mazess and Lawrence Leitzel.

The yearbook staff is a group of dedicated seniors who work very hard to create a unique yearbook. The staff begins to learn the basics of producing a yearbook in their junior year. Although school ends in June, working on the yearbook continues throughout the summer.

During this time the staff has to decide on the cover, endsheets, dividers pages, and what the format of the yearbook will be.

In September, the "real" work on the yearbook begins. At this time the yearbook staff starts putting a "dummy" yearbook together. This is just a rough copy of the final book. All this hard work is finally seen in June when everyone receives his own book of memories from the past year.

"Not all yearbook meetings are this tranquil."

Student Council is a group of energetic students who help improve the school spirit and atmosphere. They listen to complaints from students and relate them to the administration. This year many dances were sponsored by Student Council as well as a food drive for the needy people of the world.

Kevin Krause, Vice-President; Jamie Fidler, President; Janine White, Sec./Treas.; Alretta Baker, Executive Council; Doug Bender, Executive Council.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Senior Executive Council plans all senior activities.

The senior executive council is a group of students comprised of one senior from each section. These important people make final decisions on all class business, make arrangements for dances, and set up the schedule for the class trip. Just like a politician, they are each student's voice in the senior class.

Police Officer Hootspah, tired of being a cop, decides the quickest way to riches and a life of ease is to write a murder mystery. Never having written anything before, he seeks help from a hypothetical book which analyzes Agatha Christie's methods as a mystery writer.

In spite of his bumbling manner, his obvious ineptness for the task, and the fact that his people frequently get out of hand, Hootspah manages to put together a play with a barrel full of laughs, enough suspense to trigger the interest of any audience, and a cast of high-calibre characters. He blithely ignores some facts of life and law in developing his plot, but this doesn't deter him; he'd put it down to "poetic license" if he knew the term.

COOPERATIVE WORK EXPERIENCE

Co-op students receive recognition.

Rachel Heffner, Paula Bicksler, Michael Bressler, and Brian Luckenbill are just a few students out on co-op.

Two more students on co-op are Tina Care and Kathy Bennethum.

Students on co-op have to have an overall B average in their entire junior year and also in the first and second quarters of their senior year. The jobs which these students are in have to be business oriented. These students work one-half day and then return to school to resume some of their classes. Wendy Light starts co-op on March 1.

"Who me?"

"A-Feudin Over Yonder" by LeRoma Greth was this year's Junior Class Play. The play was a comedy about two hillbilly families that were feuding because a member of the Popoff family accidentally shot a member of the Fry family. By the end of the play, the feud is over because they inter-marry and everyone is happy.

The Future Farmers of America is a local, state, and federal organization and program for high school students which continues after graduation until the individual is 21 years of age. FFA promotes leadership, self-confidence, and education in agriculture and agri-business. The students also achieve for the American Farmer Degree, but must have the State Farmers Degree first. This year Rodney Hollenbach has achieved the State Farmers' Degree and may eventually strive for the American Farmers' Degree. Along with this distinguished award, he will receive the Keystone Farmer Degree during the state association's mid-winter convention.

The Horticulture Club is comprised of students who are interested in learning the basics of taking care of a lawn and planting a garden.

This year, the Hort. Club was asked to landscape the new Bethel School. They laid out their plans and presented them before the school board for approved.

In April, they are hoping to put these plans in motion by traveling to the school and planting the shrubs and trees that have been chosen. All the students are excited over the service they are doing to beautify the community.

OUR NEW ENGINEERING TEAM

Seven seniors represented Tulpehocken High School in a competition sponsored by Bell Laboratories and Western Electric. The competition was set up to enable those students interested in engineering as a career, a more knowledgeable education in the field. Several projects were suggested by the company, including building a solar windmill, a robot, or a specialized building for the handicapped. The objective of the competition was to choose an interesting subject from those suggested or one individually developed and proceed to advance or improve it. The team chose to create a stable atmosphere for the disposal of nuclear waste. The proposal, A Comprehensive Proposal to the Nuclear Waste Dilemma, deals with the major problem of proper disposal of nuclear waste in today's society. After many long hours of work, the team has written a thorough research paper and proposed outline. A detailed display, which illustrates the team's proposal, was also designed.

"I need a five minute break!"

WEEK

The latest in evening gowns.

Revival of the "Blues Brothers."

This year Spirit Week was held from January 25 through January 29. Each day a different activity was designated in which the student body dressed a special way.

On Monday, everyone wore his favorite hat. A variety were seen adorning the heads of many teachers and students alike.

On Tuesday, the school colors of blue and gold were worn by many. In the afternoon a pep rally took place to encourage all the winter sports teams.

On Wednesday, everyone dressed in his finest. Our school never looked so good.

On Thursday, numerous cowboys and Indians could be seen roaming the halls. Western day was enjoyed by all who have a touch of the "Wild West" in them.

On Friday, one person could see many doubles in the hall. Twin Day brought out some of the strangest outfits of the week. Girls in pajamas, a Blues Brothers revival, and Mr. Scarpignato look-alikes highlighted the day.

Most of all it was a fun week for everyone involved.

Hey guys, one Scarp is enough.

The 1981 Softball Team continued their winning way after last year's third place state finish. The team breezed through the regular season with a 10-1 league record losing only to Twin Valley. Their record qualified them for Berks County Playoffs. The team placed second in the county tournament losing the championship game to Conrad Weiser by a 1-6 score. After this hectic season the team moved on to District III play.

THE GIRLS

The 1981 State Softball Champions.

1981 was definitely the year of the Trojan softball team. They began their trek to the state championships by advancing to the finals of the District 3 playoffs with wins over Biglerville and Greenwood. Even though they lost to Conrad Weiser in the final game of the districts, they still advanced to the state playoffs. In the first round of states, the Trojans defeated Mifflinburg 2-1. In the quarterfinals the girls faced Conrad Weiser again. This time they broke the Scouts' undefeated streak, winning 1-0 and advancing to the next round. In the semi-finals, the Trojans breezed past Wilkes Barre 4-0. This brought them to the finals where the girls showed determination and strength to defeat Iroquois 3-0 and become the 1981 State Champions.

The thrill of victory.

The 1981-82 girls' basketball team got off to a rather slow start. Their record for the first half of the season was three wins, six losses. In the second half of play, two games were lost by a difference of only one point in each, giving the girls a record of four wins and five losses. Overall, a record of seven and sixteen was established. Exuberance and competitive spirit were maintained throughout each game. A never-relinquishing attitude inspired the girls toward victory. The season was marked by their encouraging win over the much vaunted Twin Valley team.

CHEERLEADERS

J. V.: Renee Weidman, Michalene Kershner, Lori LaFollette, Kim Kehler, April Rentschler, Lori Blatt, Janell Hulsizer, Sherry Claman. Missing: Tina Luckenbill.

The members of this year's Junior Varsity squad practiced many long hours to prevail as a well-organized group. The squad always kept their enthusiasm for the team even when they were faced with an exceptional challenge.

Nine girls were chosen to represent Tulpehocken as J. V. Cheerleaders this year. Renee Weidman and Janell Hulsizer were picked as co-captains for the 1981-1982 basketball season. Janell was also selected as a substitute for Varsity Cheerleading squad.

The season proved to be quite an endeavor as the squad consisted of only two returning cheerleaders. However, much effort was combined to yield a team of girls who were definitely "a little bit rowdy; ROW-DY!"

Co-Captains Renee Weidman, Janell Hulsizer, and advisor Miss Yoh.

Varsity: Susan Foreman, Crystal Kofroth, Deneen Ebling, Sherry Kramer, Miss Yoh, Beth Schaeffer, Denise Mazess, Debbie Gettle, Susan McGuigan.

Advisor Miss Yoh and Captain Beth Schaeffer.

Combine Tulpehocken's greatly improved fan attendance with the 1981-1982 Varsity Cheerleaders and the result is a definitely "psyched" basketball team. The eight members of this year's Varsity Cheerleading squad kept spirits high as they boosted their team on to victory. A new advisor for the cheerleaders, Miss Diane Yoh, was a great inspiration to the girls. Miss Yoh, who was previously a cheerleader herself, was able to help the squad learn and create many new crowd pleasers. The cheerleaders also organized a pep rally this year and sponsored a Victory Dance for the basketball team. Devotion to the guys was prevalent: victories were exciting, defeats were shared. Throughout the season the girls remained true and were proud to wear Tulpy's gold and blue.

"Let's go Trojans, we're right behind you!"

AWARDS

The third annual Athletic Banquet was held May 27, 1981. The Tulpehocken Sports Booster's Club sponsored this event. The evening began with dinner followed by a rousing speech given by "Mr. Motivaion," Karl Lettermen. His speech was directed towards all the athletes striving for perfection and advancement. Following the speaker, the awards presentation began. Many athletes were honored for their excellent performances in a sport or sports. Senior plaques were presented to any senior who participated in a sport during his high school career. Two of the high points of the evening were the presentations of the Tulpehocken High School Alumni Assoc. Award and the Bethel Lion's Club Athletic Award. Both these awards are given to the boy and girl who have shown high scholastic achievement and outstanding participation in their high school education. The T.H.S.A.A.A. was presented to Nina Brown and Brian Peiffer. The B.L.C.A.W. was presented to Terri Sonon and again, Brian Peiffer. The whole night proved entertaining as well as rewarding.

SCHOOL BOARD

Standing: John Rausch, Earl Schaeffer, Eva Bross, Orville Stauffer. Sitting: Gerald Seiler, Walter Focht, Jay Brown, Richard Ruth.

The School Board is one of the most important parts of our educational system. All major decisions and new resolutions regarding our school district are made by these eight people. Some of the Board's major functions include administering and regulating all school functions, carrying out the adopted budget, and maintaining all four school buildings. While supporting all these activities, the school board must still keep the responsibility of following the Pennsylvania School Code as well as the mandates and constraints of federal and state law. These people surely deserve credit for such fine work.

Jay Brown		President
Richard Ruth		Vice President
Earl Schaeffer		Secretary
Gerald Seiler		Treasurer

Mr. Ebling is in charge of the school's finances.

This past year Mr. Matthew was promoted from high school principal to Director of Instruction. He will be in charge of all educational programs.

THIS WELCOMES

That's togetherness!

THS's new principal, Mr. Jeffrey Keller.

This year, as a result of a retirement and a promotion, Tulpehocken High School added two men to the administrative staff. As Mr. Matthew moved into the newly-created position of Director of Instruction, Mr. Jeffrey Keller was chosen to fill the position of the high school principal.

Mr. Keller's job, then, consists of supervising the curriculum, maintaining cooperation between the students and the faculty, administering discipline fairly and objectively, along with a myriad of other administrative details.

The other staff opening occurred with the retirement of Mr. Earl Koenig, for many years the guiding force within the school system. Mr. Francis McCaffrey was selected to assume the responsibility of overseeing the whole educational institution that is Tulpehocken Area School District. The position entails many responsibilities: efficiently upholding school policies and order, supervising the school programs throughout the district, working in accordance with state law and school board policy, and being a spokesman for and to the community.

Since September, Mr. McCaffrey and Mr. Keller have worked to inaugurate some changes to improve the school. These administrators will have to continue working with teachers and students to upgrade and improve our school.

Mr. McCaffrey really enjoys his job.

ADMINISTRATORS

Now get me a pen that works!

The Hamburgler strikes again!

Ilene gets her first failure notice.

THS'S SECRETARIES

Mrs. Emily Weaver is in charge of attendance and depositing.

Mrs. Jean Hepner is the Business Manager.

A secretary's day is always a busy one — from keeping the office running smoothly to making sure all the students are where they should be.

Mrs. Ilene Batz is secretary to the principal.

Mrs. Janet Himmelberger is secretary to the superintendent.

Mrs. Triest is in charge of purchase orders and checking in supplies.

Mrs. Sandra Keeney is the secretary in charge of transportation.

AND GUIDANCE

Mrs. Eckton is always ready to lend a hand!

Whatever the problem, Tulpehocken's guidance department is prepared and willing to help. Pamphlets and catalogs for a large number of colleges are readily available for use by students. Personal, as well as curricular difficulties, can be worked out through a session with Mrs. Eckton. Assistance is always rendered when needed in the guidance department at THS.

Mr. Harner keeps college material up to date.

ENGLISH

Mrs. Erna Deisher is a ninth and tenth grade English teacher. She is a graduate of Kutztown State College and holds a BS degree.

Mrs. Deisher's hobbies include sewing, gardening, baking, and cooking. She enjoys being a teacher because every day is different and exciting.

"Caught by surprise, Mrs. Deisher?"

Miss Cheryl Fausnacht, who teaches ninth and tenth grade English to academic and vocational students, is a graduate of Millersville State College. She holds a BS in education and enjoys tennis, volleyball, ping pong, painting, and playing the piano.

Miss Fausnacht is currently the director of the Junior and Senior plays. She enjoys working with students and describes herself as being "enthusiastic."

TO BE OR NOT TO BE . . .

Mr. Philip Hepner is the eleventh grade English teacher. He is a graduate of West Chester State College and has a BS degree.

Mr. Hepner's hobbies include archery, hunting, canoeing, and backpacking. He is the junior class advisor and enjoys seeing students mature. When asked to describe himself, Mr. Hepner replied, "Diplomatic."

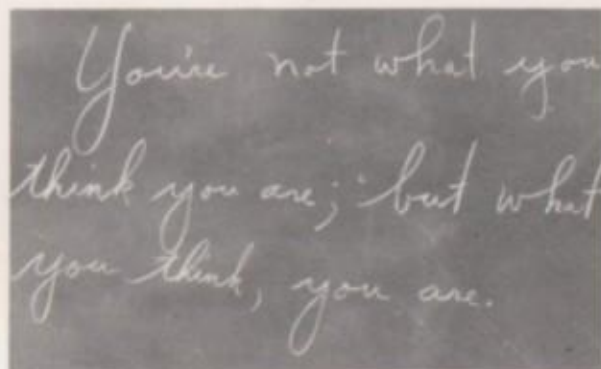

"A new friend of yours, Mr. Hoffman?"

Tulpehocken's 11th and 12th grade English courses are academically designed to help prepare students for a furtherance of education. An emphasis is placed on literature and the writing of compositions. As a whole, the English department at THS makes each year of English tough, but well worth the effort.

Why must you be so semiretarded?!

Mr. Sterling Hoffman is our twelfth grade English teacher. He graduated from Lebanon Valley College and holds a BA in English.

Mr. Hoffman enjoys reading, running, vegetable gardening, and working with fruit trees. He is a senior class advisor, an advisor for yearbook, and a track starter. Mr. Hoffman also enjoys being with students and describes himself as being "demanding."

MATHEMATICS

That smile will make any Algebra problem easier!

The Mathematics program at THS is made up of varied courses. As Freshmen, we begin taking Algebra I or General Math, and slowly progress to Trigonometry or Advanced Math in our Senior year. A strong mathematical background can be obtained through any of these classes.

Mrs. Carol Leininger teaches Algebra I, Geometry, General and Business Math. She is a graduate of Kutztown State College and holds a BS in Math Education.

Some of her hobbies include sewing, reading, and being a sports' statistician. Mrs. Leininger's favorite aspect of teaching is working with the young people.

Mr. Ronald Graeff teaches Business Math, Geometry, Algebra, and General Math. He is a graduate of Kutztown State College and holds a BS degree.

Mr. Graeff enjoys hunting, fishing, and reading. He believes teaching has its merits when a student comes to understand new and difficult concepts. Mr. Graeff describes himself as "orderly."

$$\sin \frac{5\pi}{12} = \sqrt{\frac{1}{2}(1 + \cos x)}$$

Are you sure about that, Mr. Crim?

Mr. Larry Rentschler teaches the classes of Algebra II, Physics, Advanced Math, General Math, and Physical Science. He received his BS at Elizabethtown College and his Masters degree at the University of Cincinnati.

Mr. Rentschler is the coach for girls' basketball and girls' track, along with being a senior class advisor. His hobbies include woodworking and model railroading. Mr. Rentschler has been teaching at THS for 22 years and describes himself as "relaxed."

Mr. Edward Crim teaches General Math, Consumer Math, and Trigonometry. He is a graduate of Bloomsburg State College, where he received a BS degree.

Mr. Crim's hobbies include hunting, fishing, and golfing, along with being the coach of the boys' track team. He describes himself as being "multi-faceted."

SOCIAL STUDIES

Mrs. Linda Althouse is a World Cultures and Civics teacher. She graduated from Kutztown State College with a BS and an MEd. degree.

Mrs. Althouse enjoys sailing, reading, and sewing. She is a freshman class advisor and likes getting to know the students.

Scarp, stop day dreaming and get back to work.

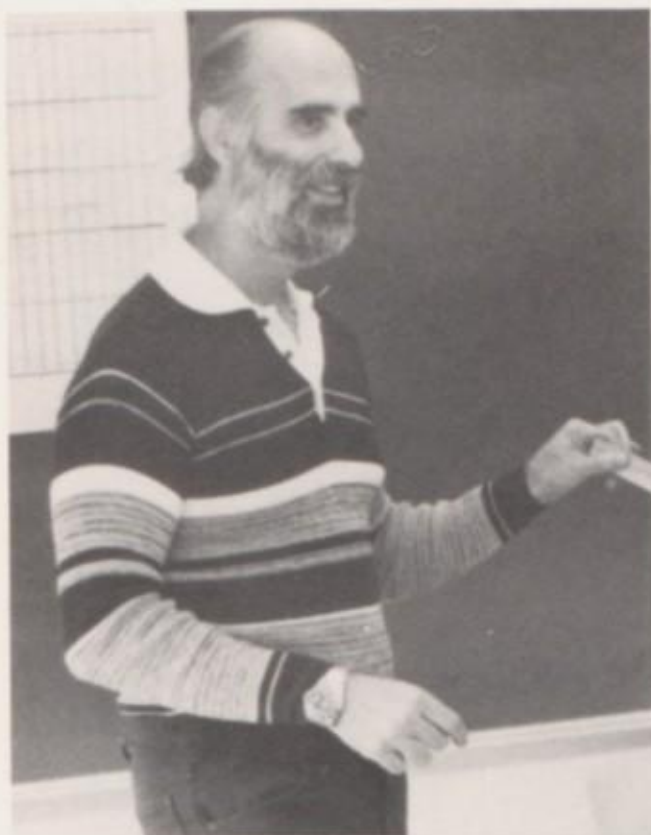

Mr. Schwartz helps Maud with American History.

Mr. Michael Scarpignato teaches Problems of Democracy and Sociology. He is a graduate of Albright College and Temple University and holds a BS and an MS in Social Studies.

Some of Mr. Scarpignato's favorite hobbies are table tennis and pocket billiards. He is the assistant softball coach and senior class advisor. When asked to describe himself, Mr. Scarpignato replied, "Beautiful and incomparable."

WE THE PEOPLE . . .

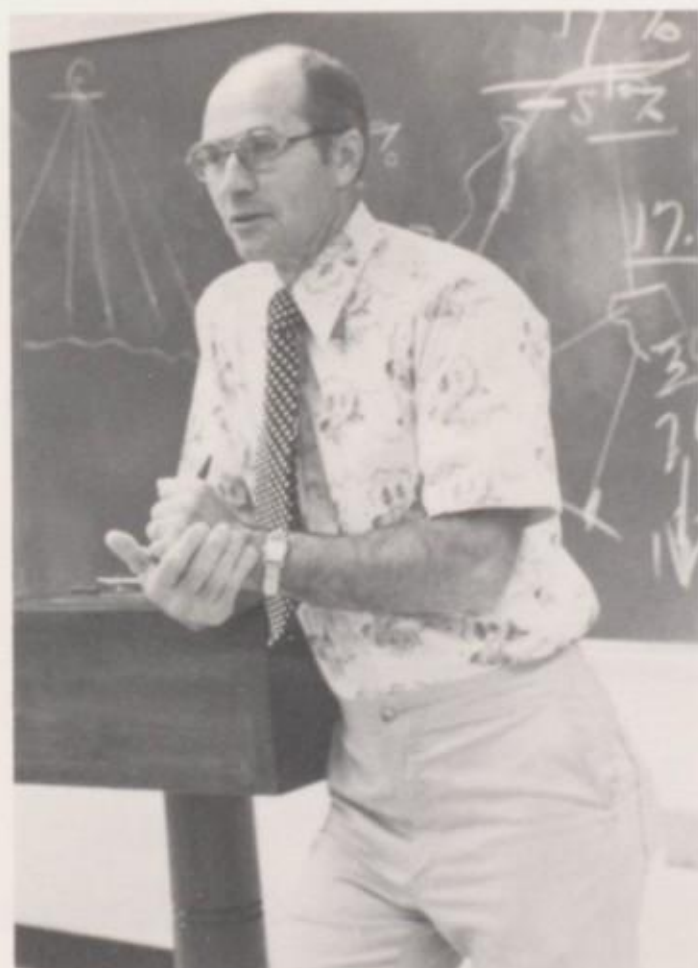

Teaching the classes of American History and Current Problems is Mr. Samuel Schwartz. He is a graduate of Mansfield State College, has a degree in Biology, and a Masters in Social Studies.

Along with being the junior class advisor, Mr. Schwartz enjoys woodworking, traveling, and bicycling. He describes himself as "sincere."

Mr. Paul Wentling teaches ninth grade Civics and tenth grade World Cultures. He graduated from Kings College in New York and holds a BA degree in History and Social Studies.

Along with being the varsity soccer coach and JV baseball coach, Mr. Wentling enjoys photography, chopping wood, and reading. He likes being with students and describes himself as "optimistic."

In Social Studies the students learn about the cultures of many countries, the history of the United States, the problems of the United States government, and the United States government itself.

SCIENCE

Mr. Frederick Ullrich teaches ninth grade Biology and twelfth grade Advanced Biology. He graduated from Albright College and holds a BA degree.

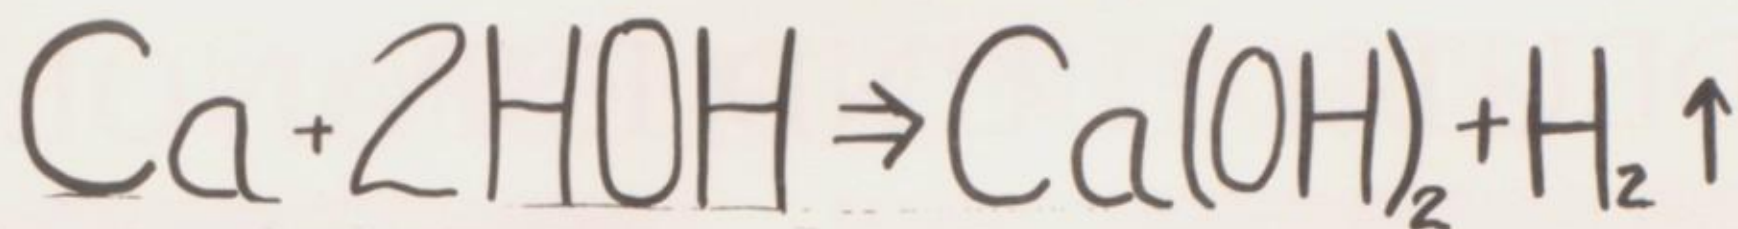

Some of Mr. Ullrich's hobbies include windsurfing, skiing, and Tai Chi. Meeting interesting people is also a favorite of his. This year, Mr. Ullrich is the advisor for the karate club and the ski club.

The dinosaur's feet were this long.

Mr. Carl Winter, who teaches Earth Science, Chemistry, and Practical Chemistry, is a graduate of Penn State University. He holds a BS in chemistry and education, an MS in physical science and a MS in chemistry.

Mr. Winter's hobbies include karate, sailing, and tennis. He is the girls' tennis coach, the girls' basketball coach, and an advisor for the karate club. He enjoys teaching because of the interaction with students.

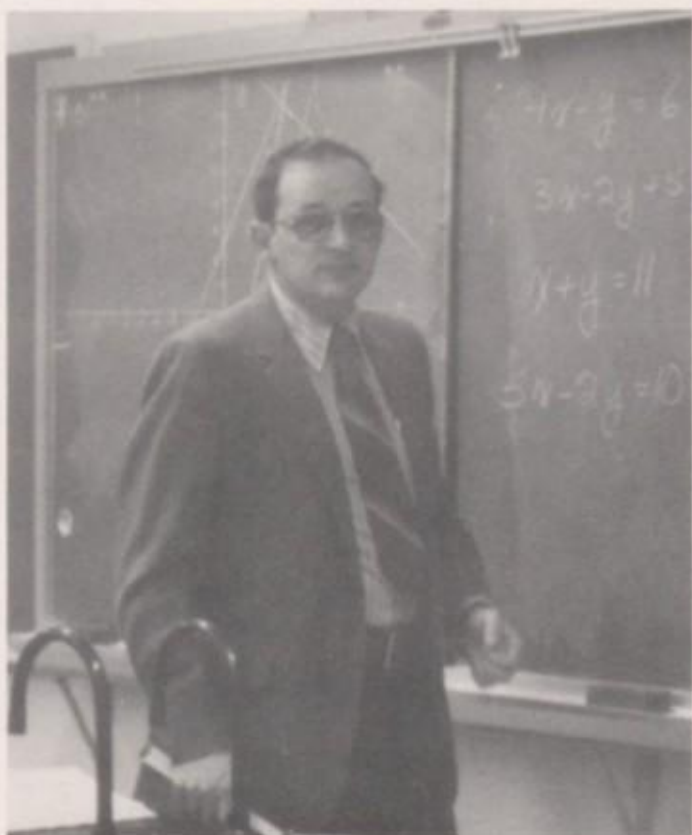

Mr. Brian Ferrence teaches Earth and Space Science. He is a graduate of Millersville State College and holds a BS and a Masters equivalency degree.

Mr. Ferrence's hobbies include canoeing, woodworking, hunting, and collecting and restoring antique tools. His favorite part of teaching is seeing the development of the malleable students as they are formed and molded into a productive, contributing member of the adult society. When asked to describe himself, Mr. Ferrence replied, "Oh, my gosh!"

Do you see anything interesting, Mr. Ullrich?

In the Science program students learn through experience by doing experiments in chemistry and by scaling a pond in Earth and Space Science. The students learn about outer space, crop diseases, dinosaurs, and rocks and minerals. The science program is truly informative and fun as well.

Mr. Larry Rentschler teaches twelfth grade Physics.

Mr. Barry Kellner teaches Biology, Earth Science, Animal Science, and Crop Science.

DEUTSCH UND ESPAÑOL

Students have a choice of two languages here at Tulpehocken, Spanish or German. Along with just learning the languages, students also learn about the people and their customs.

Miss Mary Ketner, who teaches German I, III, and IV, is a graduate of Kutztown State College. She holds a BS degree in education and a Masters in the area of German. Miss Ketner's hobbies include cats, reading, sewing, traveling, and flower gardening. Being the advisor for the National Honor Society keeps her busy as well. Miss Ketner's favorite part of teaching is working with the students.

The courses of German II and IV, and Spanish I and II are taught by Mr. Jayson Pail. He holds a BS degree in education and graduated from Kutztown State College. His education was also furthered with a stay at the University of Vera Cruz in Mexico.

Mr. Pail enjoys cooking, especially German dishes, interior design, and listening to and playing all types of music from New Wave to Classical. He describes himself as being "lively and energetic."

HOME ECONOMICS

Mrs. Beverly Miller is a temporary addition to the teaching staff at THS. She teaches Home Management to Juniors and Seniors. She enjoys making crafts, reading, and gardening. Teaching offers her the chance to instruct the students in something they will be able to use later in life.

Mrs. Beverly Blatt enjoys reading, quilting, hiking, cross-country skiing, and traveling in her free time. She likes teaching because she receives the chance to see the students change, grow, and gain confidence during their high school years.

Quilting is a new project for the Seniors.

Mrs. Betty Martin teaches academic Home Economics to Freshmen and Foods to Juniors and Seniors. Her hobbies include making crafts and playing tennis. She describes herself as being "enthusiastic."

There are two major aspects to life—a career and the home. The Home Economics course is geared toward the management and understanding of the home. While sewing and cooking are important, they are only a fraction of the entire course. Students take classes ranging from Child Development and Parenting to Consumer Education. The classes are designed to teach the students important life skills which will prepare them to live independently.

BUSINESS

This is how to juggle the books.

The courses of Academic Typing, Business Typing, General Business, Marketing, and Shorthand II are all taught by Mrs. Patricia Adameczyk. A graduate from Bloomsburg State College, she holds a BS degree.

Mrs. Adameczyk's hobbies include giving detention, Chinese cooking, needle point, ballet, and jazz dancing. She is the advisor for TBL and likes it when former students come back and visit her.

Mrs. Ann Felty is the instructor for Office Practice, Filing, Shorthand and Transcription. She graduated from Bloomsburg State College and holds a BS and an MEd degree.

Some of Mrs. Felty's favorite pastimes are bowling, reading, and crafts. She is the senior class advisor, student store manager, and co-op coordinator. Her most enjoyable part of teaching is seeing students achieve a certain goal, or use of the skills they have acquired through the business program. Mrs. Felty describes herself as being on the go.

in, 2/1/68.

It's not that bad, Martha.

The students in the business course learn many skills to prepare them for a business career. Some of their courses include Typing, Shorthand and Transcription, Accounting, Marketing, and Filing.

No that's not how you spell "insurance."

Mrs. Mildred Genelow is the teacher for the courses Accounting I and II, Typing I, English, and Business Economics. She is a graduate of Bloomsburg State College and Temple University. Along with a BS, she also holds an MEd.

Mrs. Genelow enjoys sewing, music, and reading. She is an advisor for the yearbook and especially likes to work with the students.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Arts course is composed of thirteen classes ranging from Basic Electricity and Metals to Woodworking and Plastics. Students have the added dimension of "hands on experience." This practical part of their education prepares them for the world of work.

Mr. William Scheirer is a graduate of Millersville State College. Sled dog racing, wood carving, and gun building fill his free time. He enjoys seeing the students make something that they can be proud of. He describes himself as being "conservative."

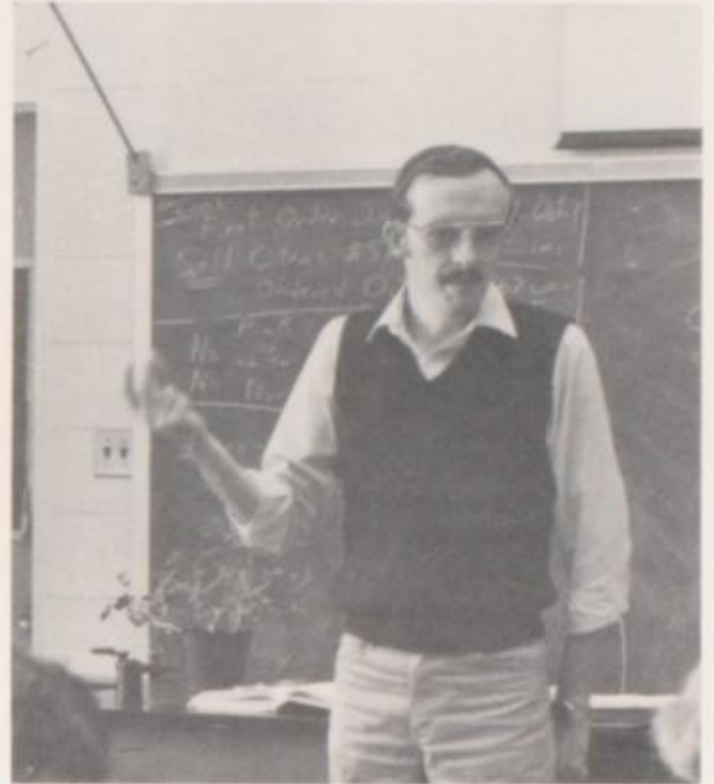

AGRICULTURE

Mr. Michael Orendo teaches Agriculture Production, Farm Mechanics, and Horticulture, as well as advises FFA. His hobbies include hunting, flying, fishing, and nursery work. He has been teaching at THS for twenty-eight years.

Vocational Agriculture is designed to prepare students who have interests in agriculture and related occupations for employment. The students take classes which teach them how to operate and manage a farm. Horticulture is an elective offered to the Seniors which deals with types of soil and plant growth.

Mr. Barry Kellner teaches ninth grade vocational Biology, Agriculture, ninth grade academic shop, and also advises FFA. He enjoys boating, working, and snowmobiling. He describes himself as "easy-going."

Mr. Kellner and Mr. Orendo are both Penn State graduates.

VO-TECH

Opening new horizons, learning new skills, that's what Vo-Tech is all about.

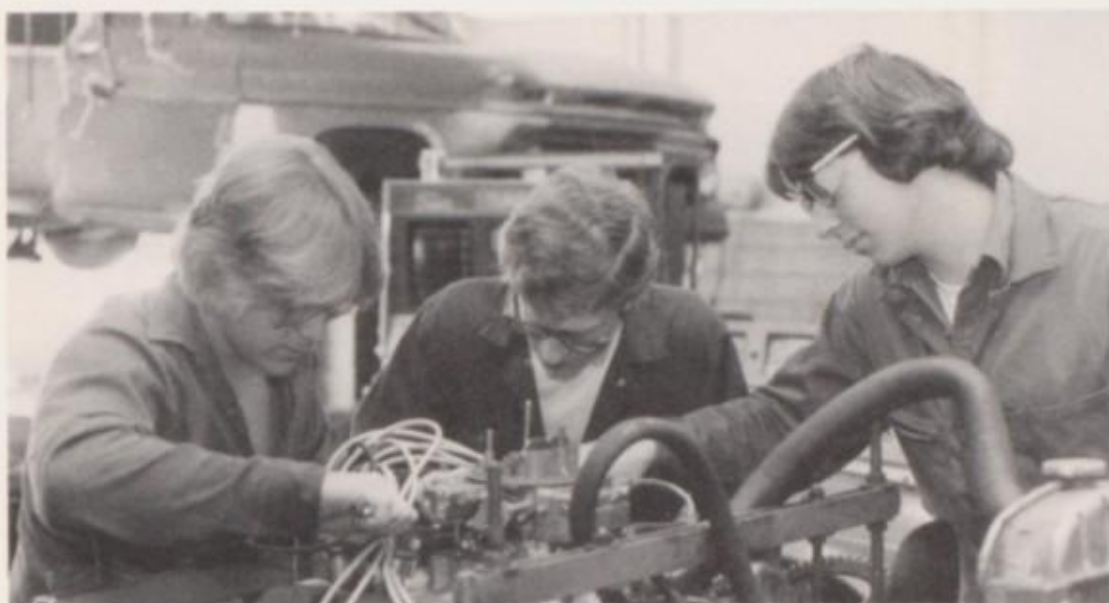

Vo-Tech students learn new skills and meet new friends. Their days back at Tulpehocken consist of four class periods: History, English, Social Studies, and Physical Education. After they graduate, they are one step ahead of other students; they have a special skill which will help them attain jobs.

"Watch your fingers, Bobby!"

"Boy, do I do nice work!"

Tim's hard at work.

This is the wrong way to roll it.

LIBRARY

Mr. Robert Bentz is our librarian at THS. He is a graduate of Millersville State College and holds a BS and an MLS.

Mr. Bentz's hobbies include photography, reading, and camping. He feels teaching is interesting because two days are never the same.

Just a small portion of the library where research can be done.

Mr. Bentz is always on the lookout for overdue books.

Students who are hard at work.

The library provides a quiet, relaxing atmosphere where students can go during studies. It also provides students with a wide variety of books, magazines, and pamphlets for enjoyment and research.

ART

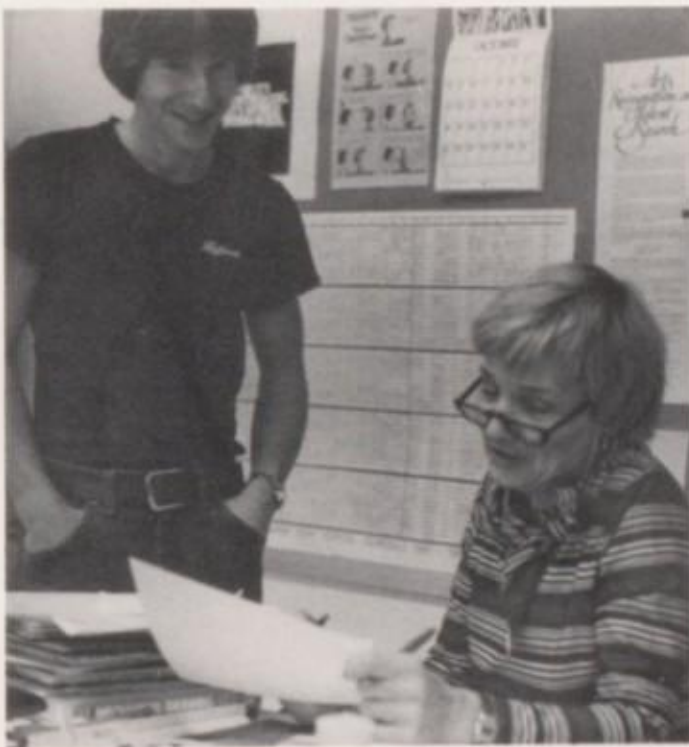

Mrs. Janet Balthaser teaches Art and Drafting for grades nine through twelve. She graduated from Kutztown State College and has a BS and MEd.

Mrs. Balthaser's hobbies include claywork, pottery, fiber art, cats, and making banners for her church. She is a field judge at track and field events, in charge of art work for the Junior and Senior class play, and is in charge of the banners for all dances. Mrs. Balthaser describes herself as being "private."

But if I do this, won't it make my hands dirty?

Erik, your art work impresses Mrs. Balthaser!

Art is not only drawing, it's also creating. The students in Mrs. Balthaser's art classes learn the basics and then go on to further their knowledge as well as their skill. Many examples of work can often be found in any one of the many show cases.

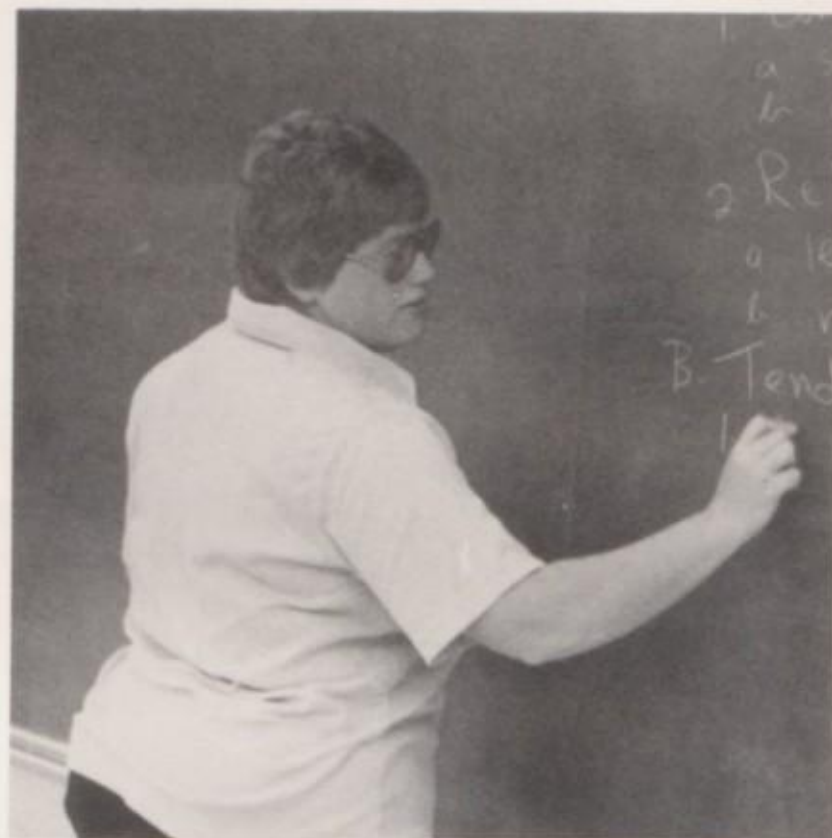

Where do I put this?

GYM/HEALTH

Mr. Lynn Schaeffer teaches Health, Driver Education, Physical Education, and has cafeteria duty. He graduated from West Chester State College, and has a BS and an MEd in Health and Physical Education.

Mr. Schaeffer enjoys running, golfing and sleeping. He is the boys' basketball and cross country coach. His favorite part of teaching is the individual instruction through the driver education program and the sports and action through the physical education program.

Miss Mary Mohn teaches ninth grade Health and Physical Education for grades nine through twelve. She graduated from East Stroudsburg State College and holds a BS degree.

Miss Mohn's hobbies include tennis and reading. She coaches varsity hockey and boys' tennis. Miss Mohn likes to be with people and describes herself as being "congenial."

All play and no work.

Mr. Carl Wolf is the instructor for many Physical Education classes. He is a graduate of West Chester State College and Stroudsburg State College.

Mr. Wolf's hobbies include bicycling and jogging. Being an athletic director keeps him busy as well. Mr. Wolf enjoys the inter-action between students and himself even though "He never gets any respect."

DRIVER EDUCATION

Driver Education is a course designed to teach students the rules of safe driving. Sophomores are given this class to prepare them for that all important honor of "sitting behind the wheel." Roadwork trains the student to drive well enough to pass THE drivers' examination. A driver's license is an important achievement and Tulpy's Driver Ed. course provides the stepping stone for this accomplishment.

"Ain't no one gonna steal my car!" (at least not this time!)

Mr. Ronald Price teaches Driver Education, twelfth grade Physical Education, and has cafeteria duty. He is a graduate of West Chester State College, where he received his BS, and Marywood College, where he received his MEd.

Mr. Price's hobbies include golfing and swimming. He is the coach for the baseball team and likes summer vacations best. Mr. Price describes himself as "easy-going."

Mr. Schaeffer also teaches Roadwork.

MUSIC

Mr. Theodore Weaver teaches instrumental music and directs the high school band and pep band. He graduated from Lebanon Valley College and Temple University. His hobbies include hunting and raising wild and domestic birds and animals. He describes himself as being "profound."

Mrs. Kathleen Snyder teaches ninth grade music and directs the high school chorus and Sedecim. She is also a graduate of Lebanon Valley College. Her hobbies include sewing, cooking, reading, and skiing. She describes herself as being "complicated."

The Freshmen at THS are required to take a course in general music. The course teaches appreciation through enjoyment and understanding. Other students may choose to express themselves musically by joining one or many of the various musical groups and organizations.

THE WAY THEY WERE

COOKS

Marion Bixler, Pearl Schaeffer, Racanna Grumbine, Joyce Zerbe, Gerri Bashore.

Every morning the cooks are up bright and early to start preparing the day's meal which is carefully planned by the food service director. A few of the meals which take a great amount of preparation are lasagna, pizza casserole, and baked chicken. The cooks also help the student with sandwich sales and banquets.

Betty Evans and Earlene Hoffman serve ice cream and are our dedicated cashiers.

Marion Bixler is Tulpehocken's new food service director. Her job consists of planning the menus, ordering the food and supplies, and checking to see that everything is running smoothly in THS's cafeteria.

CUSTODIANS

George Bashore, Harold Stoudt, Martin Bashore, Ray Himmelberger, Edna Staller, Peggy Huey.

Throughout the entire summer, the custodians are preparing the school for the start of the next school year. Even though they work all summer, their jobs don't stop when school begins. Not only do they keep the school clean and maintained, they also stay late to clean up after all activities.

Is Ray always this busy?

Mr. Bashore is THS's supervisor of buildings and grounds. He makes sure the grass is cut in spring and the schools are weatherized for the winter.

NURSES

"This work isn't that bad."

"At the sound of the beep . . ."

Mrs. Irene Haag's and Mrs. Judy Palmer's days are hectic and full. Not only do they help those who are ill, they also help the doctor when physicals are given. When either of the nurses is here, she checks the students' eyes and hearing, and records their weight and height.

"My vision is 20/20 - with my glasses!"

BUS DRIVERS

Row 1: Alan Rauenzahn, Glen Strunk, Lester Feick, Wayne Stoudt. Row 2: Marilyn Kissling, Ann Brown, Quentin Gettel, Harold Bashore, Martin Bashore, Phyllis Stoudt.

Your smile gets me through the day.

The students always arrive at school on time.

Every morning our bus drivers travel all over the roads of northwestern Berks County picking up students for school. Not only do the bus drivers transport students in the morning and afternoon, they also drive students to parades, sports events, and field trips.

TULPY FADS

Craig caught scrub fever.

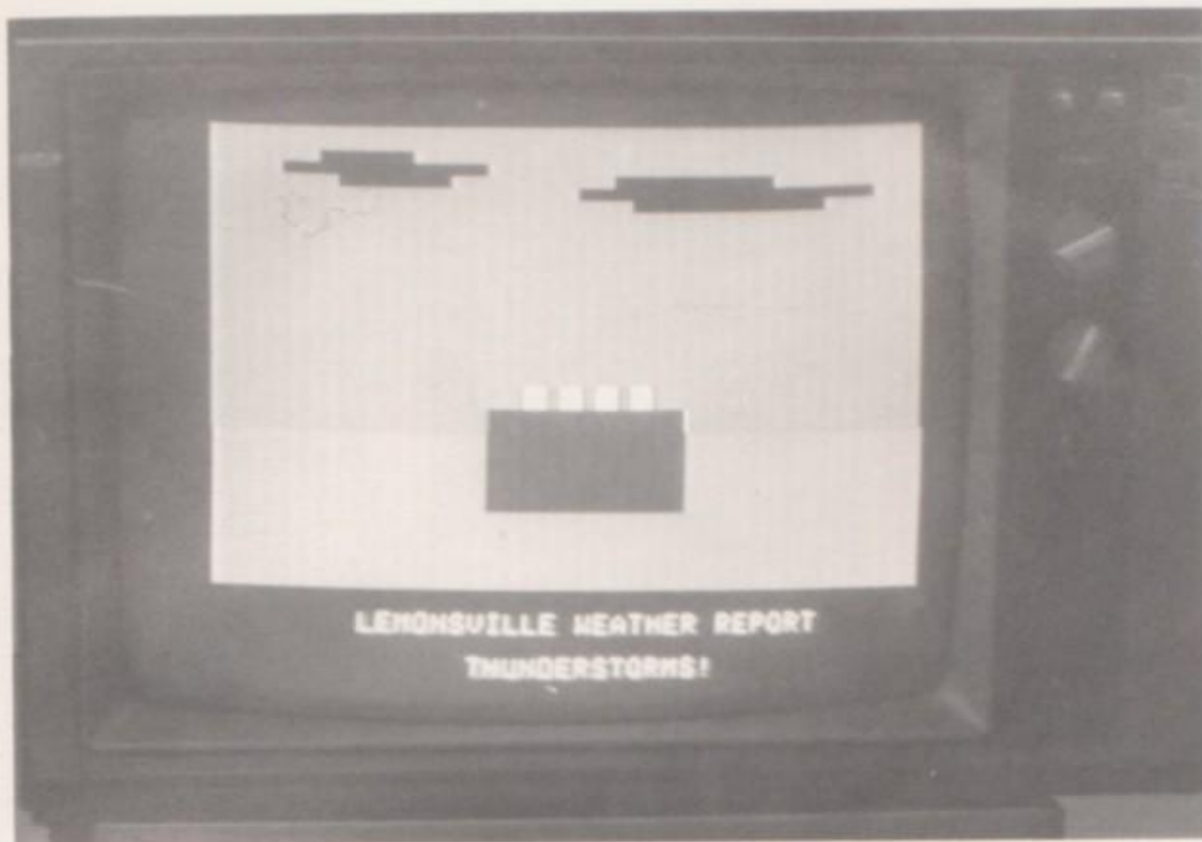

Tulpy went Western, but left their boots behind.

Trojan mania swept the school.

Nikes made gym class fun.

Computers sweep Tulpehocken High.

Birds aren't the only ones with feathers.

There's a sale on headbands at Ormonds.

Take a hike!

Who's that behind those designer jeans?!

Rock Jerseys take our school by storm.

What a line-up!

East meets West.

The business department also received a new computer.

Quilting is a favorite pastime.

Oxford shirts aren't only worn in England.

Feathers look great on most anything.

Charm necklaces display the symbols of our school years.

General Hospital is #1 at THS, too!

Which way to the wharf?

Looking for sailors.

We would like to express our most sincere appreciation to our yearbook advisors, Mrs. Mildred Genelow and Mr. Sterling Hoffman, who put in many long hours and endured many headaches to make this book possible. Without their unfailing dedication, our frantic deadlines would never have been met. We would also like to thank Mr. Andy Santora, American yearbook representative, and Mr. William Uhler and Mr. Robert Kieffer, of Uhler Studios. Lastly, but certainly not forgotten, go our thanks to all the teachers and to the secretaries who allowed us to miss classes and who answered all our unending questions.
